Trust not in goodness

We have done what we were obliged to do.

Luke 17:10

I was chatting recently with a young woman who did not see any reason to go to church or practice the faith. She was implying that "being Good! Is enough to enter the Kingdom. It is not.

In today's Scriptures, we are admonished not to trust in our own merits, as laudatory as these might be. Rather,

Jesus said we should say to ourselves, "we are unprofitable servants" merely doing what we should do.

What God offers us is astoundingly greater than we could ever merit or imagine. God offers us a share in God's own divine nature, a participation in infinite Love! We trust not in our limited servitude or any goodness we might think we have. Rather, we focus all on the pure gift of God, and we welcome it in faith.

Msgr. Stephen J. Rossetti.

No hemos hecho mas que cumplir con nuestro deber

Lucas 17,10

Recientemente estuve charlando con una joven que no veía ninguna razón para ir a la iglesia o practicar la fe. Ella estaba insinuando que "¡ser bueno! Es suficiente para entrar en el Reino. No lo es.

En las Escrituras de hoy, se nos amonesta a no confiar en nuestros propios méritos, por muy laudatorios que sean. Más bien, Jesús dijo que debemos decirnos a nosotros mismos: "somos siervos inútiles" simplemente haciendo lo que debemos hacer.

Lo que Dios nos ofrece es asombrosamente mayor de lo que podríamos merecer o imaginar. ¡Dios nos ofrece una participación en la propia naturaleza divina de Dios, una participación en el Amor infinito! No confiamos en nuestra servidumbre limitada o en cualquier bondad que podamos pensar que tenemos. Más bien, nos enfocamos todos en el don puro de Dios, y lo acogemos con fe.

Msgr. Stephen J. Rossetti.
